

9 October 2025

To all shareholders in the 7IM Select Balanced Fund (a sub-fund of 7IM Opportunity Funds)

Dear Shareholder

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING THE EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS IN THE 7IM SELECT BALANCED FUND HELD ON 9 OCTOBER 2025 – THIS DOCUMENT REQUIRES YOUR IMMEDIATE ATTENTION

We, Seven Investment Management LLP ("ACD"), wrote to you on 9 October 2025 notifying you of our proposal to merger of the 7IM Select Balanced Fund (the "Fund") into the 7IM Balanced Fund (the "Receiving Fund"). Further information on this proposal is set out below and in the 9 October 2025 letter.

The Merging Fund was launched in July 2019 along with three other sub-funds. Two of those sub-funds have since merged with receiving funds in the 7IM Investment Funds umbrella.

The 7IM Select range, which the Merging Fund forms part of, was designed to be the 7IM investment vehicle of choice for clients of the 7IM Private Client Service, and has been distributed solely via this route.

Following analysis from its distribution network and the 7IM Private Client Service proposition, the ACD now considers that there is limited prospect of attracting significant new investment into the Merging Fund.

The asset allocation of the Merging Fund has over time become increasingly similar with that of the Receiving Fund. The 7IM Private Client Service is therefore of the view that there is little to differentiate the two funds and the ACD has therefore decided to rationalise its fund range by merging the Merging Fund into the Receiving Fund. It is expected that the merger will offer prospects of economies of scale for investors in both the Merging and the Receiving Fund.

The ACD believes the Receiving Fund is a good merger candidate for the Merging Fund as it has a very similar investment objective and policy, and the same investment management team who operate a consistent investment approach and manage the Funds to the same risk profile. Currently the underlying portfolio holdings of the Merging Fund and the Receiving Fund are also close to identical. The relative Annual Management Charges will also be the same. The OCF of the Receiving Fund is anticipated to be lower.

The ACD believes the Receiving Fund is a good merger candidate for the Fund as it has a very similar investment objective and policy, and the same investment management team who operate a consistent investment approach and manage the Funds to the same risk profile.

For the merger to become effective, it requires at least three quarters by value (75%) of the votes cast at an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders to be in favour. We therefore gave shareholders the opportunity to submit proxy voting forms to us and also held an extraordinary general meeting giving shareholders the opportunity to vote in person on 9 October 2025. The extraordinary general meeting was unfortunately not quorate, meaning the minimum number of shareholders present either in person or by proxy was not met. That means the vote could not go ahead and the extraordinary general meeting needs to be adjourned to a later date.

This letter is to notify you that the adjourned extraordinary general meeting will be held at 4.00 pm on 21 October 2025 at 1 Angel Court, London EC3R 7HJ.

The purpose of this meeting will be to again ask shareholders to consider the proposal and, if shareholders agree, to vote in favour of the following:

Extraordinary Resolution

the scheme of arrangement (the 'Merger') between the 7IM Select Balanced Fund, a sub-fund of the 7IM Opportunity Fund, and 7IM Balanced Fund, a sub-fund of 7IM Investment Funds, the terms of which are set out in the 'Information Pack' dated 9 October 2025, is hereby approved and that Seven Investment Management LLP (as authorised corporate director of 7IM Select Balanced Fund) is instructed, and Northern Trust (as depositary of 7IM Select Balanced Fund) is authorised, to implement the Merger in accordance with its terms.

If after a reasonable time from the start of the adjourned meeting the quorum of two shareholders is still not present, then as permitted by applicable regulation one shareholder present in person or by proxy shall constitute a quorum and the meeting will proceed.

If you wish to vote, you can attend the meeting in person or submit a proxy voting form to us. We have enclosed a blank copy of the proxy voting form in the Appendix to this letter. Any proxy voting forms returned further to the original letter dated 23 September 2025 will also remain valid.

We urge you to please complete the enclosed proxy voting form in accordance with the instructions in the Appendix. Please return this to us at 1 Angel Court, London EC3R 7HJ as soon as possible and, in any event, by 20 October 2025.

The minutes of the original meeting on 9 October 2025 and of the adjourned meeting will be published on our website within five business days of the adjourned meeting, together with the outcome of the vote.

Yours faithfully

Signed by Seven Investment Management LLP:
